Paul Mitchell The School Springfield

MAKE-UP WORK

Students must complete all required assignments and tests. To accommodate students, make up test days and worksheet periods are scheduled. Students must complete make up work at this scheduled time. Monthly make up test dates are posted on the theory and school calendars. Time missed, or make up of work necessary to reestablish satisfactory status, will initially require extending the “normal” finish time for the program and may result in over contract charges.